

Korynn Morrison

Untitled* – The Corner Store Gallery

March 15 - 26

Korynn Morrison (b.1991) is an Australian born contemporary painter, living and working in Sydney. Since graduating from National Art School in 2012, her work has been featured in many solo and group exhibitions across Australia.

Morrison was a finalist in both the Mini Series Art Prize 2021 and the Into The Light Art Prize in 2021 & 2022.

Timeless, tactile and seductive, Morrison's Excavated Landscapes are a truly magnetic experience.

Her mission is to make work that encourages people to stand still. Paintings that unravel themselves over time, giving the viewer permission to claim their moment of pause in a world so fast paced.

Each panel is an invitation for the curious mind to wonder, and question what beauty may be hidden just beneath the surface. Her performative layering and excavation processes reveal a rich history of perfect imperfection that gives endless depth to the two-dimensional surface.

These paintings are created in collaboration with life. They are bold, and have an unforgiving insensity bound within the litres of paint on each surface. Fueled by risk and the pure joy felt whilst walking within the Australian landscape, these paintings are a true legacy of what it means to be stubborn in service of pure passion.
