

Yani Lenehan

Untitled* – The Corner Store Gallery

March 15 - 26

Yani Lenehan is an artist living in Bathurst, NSW, known primarily for her vibrant and joyful still life paintings. Her fascination with the ways colours interact with one another drives her passion for creating modern, vibrant, and colourful artworks that are joyful and happy. Yani's process starts with a detailed drawing that is slowly built up to a stylised contemporary artwork which is delicate and smooth. Her aim is to convey a feeling of calm and serenity to her collectors, as well as evoke a sense of joy and charm.