

Chanel Sohier

Terrain – The Corner Store Gallery

April 12 - 23

Chanel Sohier is a Sicilian Australian artist interested in the poetic qualities of representing landscape. She graduated from UNSW with a Bachelor of Fine Arts, working across painting and drawing, and she continues to refine her practice as an emerging artist. Her work has been exhibited across the east coast of Australia and has been included in multiple editorial publications.

"This series of paintings explores place through the lens of memory and distance. My travel between Sydney and Orange, often at night, has provoked an interest in often overlooked places between destinations. The last light often is cradled in the hills like a waning ember and the world begins to fall into sleeping dark tones. This emblematic transience interests me as a metaphor for human experience." – Chanel Sohier.
