An Ode to Pink

November 22 - December 2

Daniela Cristallo has been the recipient of numerous art awards as well as a finalist in a number of contemporary art prizes. She has participated in over 30 group exhibitions and recently completed a large body of work for a Solo show in Newcastle and a 2 person show in Melbourne. Her practice is anchored in contemporary abstract painting. Communication between natural environmental terrains and their register in bodily sensations become a resource that is transcribed on the painting plane. A constructed shorthand of mark making; colour, pace and texture become the organising principles of her abstraction and each plays a significant role in answering to the observations of place and feeling.

'An Ode to Pink' is a visual transcript of Daniela's inner landscapes; devoid of any distractions. An enquiry into the symbolism of her poetic love of all things Pink, she explores the emotional atmospheres drawn upon the deeper sensations felt within the body's register. The interplay of light, texture and mood translate subtle connections of recorded conversations; evoked by internal reflections into different spectrum's of the colour Pink.
